WEATHER POLICY

Before the party:

If inclement weather were to occur before your party starts and we are unable to set up your inflatable, we will refund your deposit. Once your party is cancelled and deposit has been refunded we will not set up even if it stops raining later on in the day. (i.e if party is cancelled at 10am and it clears up by 2 pm. We have already cancelled your party and will not be setting up your unit).

During your party:

For safety reasons for you and your guests, if inclement weather were to occur during your party you must immediately exit the inflatable, turn the blower off, unplug blower and move it to a covered area and cover inflatable with a tarp (provided). The customer will be held liable for any damages that may occur if the previously listed steps are not followed. We reserve the right to pick up the inflatable unit during your party if bad weather is in the forecast. (i.e if your party starts at 12pm and the forecast is calling for rain, thunderstorms and/or heavy winds at 4pm we will be picking up the inflatable at 3pm before the bad weather starts). Once again we do this for safety reasons and to protect our equipment.

Options:

The customer will be given the option to either cancel the party prior to setup and receive their full refund on their deposit or the customer still wishes to have the inflatable setup knowing there is inclement weather in the forecast. If the inflatable will only be up for a few hours and not the normal full day rental the customer is still obligated to pay the full rental price.
